WE NOMINATE

Eugene Paul Wigner, one of the beloved and deeply respected members of the Princeton Community, who—in spite of his extreme distaste for any kind of personal publicity—has returned to the headlines in defense of a matter long close to his heart: a broader, more vigorous civil defense program for the United States. The 62-year old Nobel Laureate in Physics, this past winter Man of the Year of The Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce and Civic Council, is strongly upholding a hitherto unpublicized report prepared for the Federal Government on the outlook for the nation's capacities for surviving a nuclear war.

The eye of the storm, creating widespread and bitter controversy among scientists, engineers and laymen, is the 1,000-page report of Project Harbor, a 60-man civil defense study organized in 1963 by the National Academy of Sciences and conducted under Wigner's leadership. On balance, it could be termed a reasonably optimistic report in which Wigner, in a foreword to the summary, states in part: "Nuclear war would result in great loss of life, great devastation and great misery. But appropriate protective measures which are well within the economic means of the nation could drastically reduce the number of casualties."

As the criticisms of Project Harbor have mounted, particularly in regard to a section of the report which points out that blast shelters could protect the lives of 80 per cent of the population (providing ample warning was given), Wigner has maintained his characteristic serenity and has counter-attacked without rancor. Speaking as he has on several occasions before Princeton audiences, he has stressed the importance of "correcting all misunderstandings, however irrelevant they may appear" and has underscored "the protection of the lives of people as a moral duty."

A naturalized citizen and a devoted Princetonian since coming to this country some 35 years ago, Wigner, the only scientist to hold the Nobel Prize, The Ford Foundation's Atoms for Peace Award and the Atomic Energy Commission's Enrico Fermi Prize, was one of the architects of the atomic age. Together with the late Enrico Fermi and Leo Szilard he drafted the two-page letter which they persuaded the late Albert Einstein to send to President Roosevelt in 1939. This historic missive suggested the possibility that "the element uranium may be turned into a new and important source of energy in the immediate future."

Wigner, present when the first atomic fire on earth was lighted at precisely 3:25 p.m., Central Standard Time, on December 2, 1942 at the University of Chicago, designed during the World War II era the giant reactors that first produced atomic power for peaceful purposes. Over the past two decades he has on occasions recalled the soul-searching he and his associates experienced before, during and after the development of the atomic bomb: "If we hadn't invented the bomb, another nation would have. We believed that in our hands it would force an effective United Nations — a way to permanent world peace."

For expressing his own convictions with all of the emphasis at his command; for believing that an effective civil defense program "would reduce tension and would further constructive thinking" at home and abroad; for urging his countrymen to ponder both sides of the question of civil defense; he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee as

HERE'S OUR POOL

Plans Revealed. Princeton's community swimming pool will be ready for the first plunge next Memorial Day.

This long-awaited announcement was made Monday night as the Joint Recreation Board unveiled publicly for the first time its revised plans for Community Gardens. (See map, page 3).

Board members and R. Donald Barr, Princeton's recreation director, hope that the pool can actually be started this fall: the site prepared, utilities installed, maybe even the excavating done. In any case, Costello and Gabrielson, the consultants who prepared the plans, have guaranteed a Memorial Day pool if they can start work on March 1.

To skeptics who questioned Mr. Barr Monday night about such a tight construction schedule, the recreation director replied that the Memorial Day guarantee included a penalty clause, and that he was sure the pool could be ready by that time.

Where Do I Dive? Present plans call for a three-pool complex bracketed by Township Hall on one side and Community Park School on the other. The main pool will be a standard Olympic pool, 165 by 70 feet, 3½ to 4½ feet deep. Next to it will be a diving pool ("you lose 45-50% of your swimming area if you have diving and swimming in the same pool," said Mr. Barr) and a junior pool for waders. Underwater lights will be installed.

The consultants hope Princeton will eventually build an indoor pool smaller than the big Olympic one, but this fourth pool is far down on the priority list.

Original plans shewed the pool complex on the north side of Route 206, but over the last four months, as the consultants worked and planned, talked with Recreation Board members, tramped both sides of the highway and learned more about the Princeton community, the south side gained in favor, and the north began to recede. Drainage is bad on the north, many trees would have to be moved, access roads are poor, plumbing would have to be brought in from afar. If the pool were built on Harrop land, acquired with state funds, everybody in New Jersey might have the right to swim there.

But a swimming pool on the south has none of these handicaps. In addition, it is next to a heavily populated area, easily reached by young children on foot, and it lies close to Community Park, Valley Road, John Witherspoon and Princeton High schools.

On the revised plan, an ice rink is next to the pool, but a skating rink is not necessarily next in priority. A tree-shaded parking lot on Witherspoon Street for 300 cars will serve swimmers in summer and skaters in winter. (Two hundred more cars can park in the new lot just completed on the south, near John Street, and 250 more in a lot which will border 206 on the north. Community Park School and Township Hall have parking areas, as well.

And Shuffleboard. The south portion will also contain 15 tennis courts: nine fast-dry and six all-weather, including a tennis stadium with three lighted courts and movable bleachers. There will be courts for basketball, shuffleboard, handball and bocci, four Little League softball diamonds, a "play lawn" for soccer, lacrosse and girls' field hockey and a lighted stadium with movable bleachers for football or baseball.

Across Route 206, reached by a footbridge, will be space for unorganized recreation. In these wooded hills, the planning consultants have laid out an artificial lake with a boat house, and a picnic area laced by paths.

The play field on the north will be "just for fun," rather than for organized sports, and the amphitheatre bordering the lake will be for band concerts or summer theatre. The hills will offer sledding, skiing and hiking and nature walks as the seasons change.

North of the lake the planners suggest a nine-hole par 3 golf course, with the possibility of 18 holes in time.

Because Community Gardens is divided by Route 206, the Township Planning Board suggested a cross-over, and also advised an overpass to lead cars northbound on Route 206 into the 206 parking lot.

Besides the Planning Board, Borough Council and Township Committee have seen the plans, and Mr. Barr told the Recreation Board meeting Monday night that the "city fathers' " reaction was "Tell us what you want so we can approve it."

Criticism. But there were critics on Monday night. Melvin Gottlieb started things by stating that the southern section was packed too tight.

"Police cars or ambulances should be able to drive at will through the whole area," he said. "There are too few paths for circulation between the different sections, and little room for architectural effect."

Mr. Barr said there will be a gate in the 206 fence for ambulances, and in reply to the comment about density, he shrugged and said, "This is the plot of land we've been handed to work with . . ."

Mr. Gottlieb also criticized the location of the tennis courts (too close to the noise of the pool) and John Conroy, University tennis coach who is a member of the Recreation Board, said that the courts had been lobbed back and forth across 206 innumerable times before they were finally laid down on the south side. Locating them on the south means that tennis players can share locker space with swimmers and maybe take a quick dip after tennis, Board members pointed out.

"I think the Recreation

Board should be commended for these plans," remarked William Blattenberger. "You could, of course, open up the southern section, but then you'd have fewer facilities, so why not leave it as it is?"

How Much? Then the question of cost arose. Mr. Gottlieb remarked that the overpasses for cars and pedestrians might be very expensive indeed, and Joseph Bannon asked how much the three-pool complex alone would cost.

Mr. Barr said pools and facilities would be about $450,000, but later he said this was a very general "ball-park" kind of figure, and that no firm statement could really be made until detailed specifications were drawn and bids were in.

"Is this pool going to be free, or will there be a fee for using it?" asked Jack Yost. "This is a crucial question."

No decision about fees has yet been made, Mr. Barr replied. The consultants recommend a free period each day.

Mrs. John W. A. Fine, in the audience, spoke of Linden, where children under 14 can swim free all morning, and she suggested that Princeton's pool, like Linden's, might eventually pay its own way.

The consultants' figure of $88,000 for bath-houses made everybody jump, but Mr. Conroy was reassuring: "That figure is much too elaborate. We can do it better."

What's Next? After the public presentation, the Board folded its plan and went into executive session to talk over the criticisms and suggestions. It will now ask Costello and Gabrielsen for the cost of the three pools, bath-houses, utilities and parking, hoping to present them at its next public meeting Monday, September 13. Then to Borough Council and Township Committee for ordinances appropriating the money, and perhaps from there, to an autumn groundbreaking.

There's just one more thing . . . what about peanuts, popcorn and popsicles? There is no provision in the plans for a refreshment stand.

STREET FIGHT IS FATAL

Man Stabbed Outside Tavern. An argument that began in the White Horse Tavern at 9 Birch Avenue about midnight Friday and reached its climax on the street a few minutes later brought death to Freddie L. Wilson, 31, of 100 Leigh Avenue.

Held without bail in Mercer County jail to await action by the grand jury is Roderick D. Fannell, 25, on a charge of murder. Detective Fred Porter of Township Police said that while Fannell used 70 Clay Street as a mailing address, he does not live there and has no known address.

Police report that the two men became involved in an increasingly heated argument in the tavern and that they went outside shortly after 12 o'clock. At approximately 12:06, Mr. Wilson was stabbed in the chest, the wound proving fatal.

Police report that he lived about ten minutes and was pronounced dead on arrival at Princeton Hospital. The weapon allegedly use was described as a paring knife. Fannell, whose only brush with police previously has been on a charge of disorderly conduct, was arrested three hours later at the home of a friend, Sgt. Lester Anderson and Pfc. David Potts took him into custody.

No reason for the argument has been advanced by the police, save to comment that the two men had a mutual dislike for each other. There are unsubstantiated reports that the argument started over two unidentified women.

Former magistrate Louis R. Gerber presided at the arraignment. The incumbent, Glen Miller Jr., was absent from Princeton at the time.

Mr. Wilson is survived by his wife, Verna; two sons, Freddie and Richard; a daughter, Kent; his mother, Mrs. Alice Wilson; three sisters, Mrs. Ann Taylor, Mrs. Eureka Parks and Miss Patricia Wilson, all of Princeton. The funeral was held at the Mt. Pisgah AME Church, with the Rev. Albert D. Tyson officiating. Burial was in Princeton Cemetery.

LITTLE MORE TO SAY

On Fluoridation. Everybody expected a big fluoridation bomb to explode at Borough Council Tuesday night with an earthshaking roar, but it fizzled out in five minutes with only a weak pop, and the closing gavel came down before 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Arthur Beddoe, 747 Nassau Street, read a statement prepared by the new Citizens' Water Company (see below and "Mailbox"). Stephen Bender, 159 Nassau, read a resolution supporting fluoridation which the dental department of Princeton Hospital and the combined dental-medical staffs had passed unanimously. Dr. Arnold Hirsch, 211 N. Harrison, said he concurred, and then informed Mrs. Beddoe that fluoridation is not "medication" but a "nutrient."

And it was all over, at least for the time being. But, as Councilman Alfred E. Sorenson reminded the speakers, Borough Council has nothing to do with fluoridation anyway; it is strictly a Board of Health matter.

Before anyone spoke on fluoridation, Mayor Henry S. Patterson acting on the advice of Borough attorney Gordon B. Griffin, laid down his gavel, tucked his glasses into his pocket and announced that he was leaving the room and turning the meeting over to Council President Sorenson to avoid any possible charge of conflict of interest. Mayor Patterson is executive vice-president of the Princeton Water Company.

After four hearings apiece, both the B-4 ordinance and the site plan ordinance were defeated. In fact, Council regarded both with such unanimous disapproval that nobody even made a motion to vote on either one. Councilman Alan Carrick, closely identified with both ordinances, was absent.

"Council is impressed with the arguments presented," commented Mayor Patterson, "and is convinced that both ordinances can be re-worked and the difficulties cured."

The arguments presented Tuesday night were the same ones Council and Planning Board have heard before. Princeton University, which has fought the site-plan almost alone, said through its attorney Frank Reiche that "our

MANAGERS EXPLAIN
Duplicate Bookings Discussed. Princetonians' choice of movies has narrowed considerably during the past few weeks. The bawdy, lighthearted "What's New Pussycat?" appeared at both Playhouse and Prince, followed by simultaneous showings of "The Sandpiper." This week it's "Operation Crossbow." Duplicate bookings at the two theatres, baffling and frustrating to movie-bound resident, are looked at by the managers from the point of view of economics.

According to Mike Evangelista, 23-year-old manager of the Prince, "We have had numerous complaints about the Playhouse and Prince having the same picture. This comes about because we are both 'first run' theatres and we both book out of New York."

He explains that "first run" theatres are those which show a film immediately after its premiere in the city from which they book their films. "Every area is different — they have played this picture three months ago on the west coast."

He commented, "This booking situation is a very involved thing. The film company works on a percentage of the box office gross. You bid for a particular picture. The Prince and Playhouse could bid against each other, but the percentage would be so high that it would knock the bottom right out of the profit.

"We try to stagger the bookings, but in most of the instances, we bear with it!"

Business Doesn't Suffer. He said that he and Richard Knight, the Playhouse manager, keep in touch with each other. "Either of us could find out what the other is playing by calling the film exchanges in New York. All bookings are subject to change.

"In this area, I find that as far as the Prince and Playhouse go, we don't seem to hurt each other by booking the same film. We sat and discussed this when I first came here three years ago. Both theatres have their steady patrons."

He noted that "Tom Jones" drew roughly 20,000 customers during its six-week stay at the Prince. The Playhouse booked the film for five weeks. "They were still squeezing money at the seventh week at Fairless Hills."

Mr. Evangelista, who has been working around movie theatres since he was a schoolboy in Doylestown, Pa., has managed the Prince since its opening. It is a part of a chain owned by Basico, Inc. of Doylestown, which has grown from two to 23 theatres in ten years. "The trend today," he says "is to locate theatres in shopping centers for the convenience of parking.

Part of the success of the Prince is due to the inconvenience of parking in Trenton."

Sometimes the Prince and the Playhouse go their separate ways . . . but the odds are they'll be together again with "Lord Jim" next week. And all parties will have to "bear with it."

THE GARDEN

Shenandoah (now through Tuesday) is a colorful Civil War picture with its chief asset a masterful performance by James Stewart in the lead role.

Stewart, a widower, lives with his six sons and a daughter in Virginia, trying to remain neutral in the conflict which rages around him. He resists attempts by the South to draft his boys, even though they want to join, and by the North to buy his animals. However, the family is soon immersed in tragedies brought about by both sides.

The idea that war is hell and the innocent suffer the most has been recounted countless times before in every conflict in history, but this film has done a masterful and convincing job than most.

PLAYHOUSE AND PRINCE

Operation Crossbow (now through Tuesday) is a fairly well-made spy story using an incident that took place in World War II for its material

ESPIONAGE AGENT TAKES A BREAK: George Peppard, a spy for the Allies, takes time out with Sophia Loren, in a scene from "Operation Crossbow," at Prince and Playhouse.

News Of The Theatres

"Operation Crossbow" was the code name given by Winston Churchill to a top secret project: the verification of reports that shortly before the time set for the Allied invasion of Europe, the Germans had completed the development of long-range missiles with tremendous destructive power. The picture begins with intensive efforts by the British to check the reports, and when this is accomplished, George Peppard, Tom Courtenay and Jeremy Kemp are sent as espionage agents to destroy the sites. Sophia Loren appears briefly in a minor role.

"Crossbow" is adequately filmed and has a fair measure of suspense, but does not quite make it as a top-flight spy story.

"1984" TO BE PRESENTED
By Hopewell Theatre Group. The Summer Opportunities Theatre Workshop of Hopewell Township will present three performances of George Orwell's "1984" Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30 at the Open Air Theatre in Washington Crossing State Park. Tickets are $1.50.

The workshop was organized on a formal basis last year by its director Robert R. Sine, but many of its approximately 40 members are participating for the third year. Two years ago, the group was called the Pennington Junior Players.

MISS COCA STARRING
At Bucks County "The Solid Gold Cadillac" continues its two-week run at the Bucks County Playhouse, with Imogene Coca in the lead role. Miss Coca, with only three days of rehearsal, replaced Pearl Bailey, who had collapsed of fatigue in Los Angeles.

Featured with Miss Coca are George S. Irving, who appeared in the last Playhouse production, "Tom Jones," and Joan Darling, one of the original stars of "The Premise." The show will run through Saturday, August 21.

FAIR LADY RETURNS
To Music Circus. "My Fair Lady" will return to the Lambertville Music Circus, this time for a one-week engagement, beginning Tuesday, June Helmers appears as Eliza Doolittle, and Earl Hammond as Professor Henry Higgins.

"Oliver," now in its third and final week at the Music Circus, will end Sunday. Performances are given at 8:30, Tuesday through Friday; 6 and 9:30, Saturdays; and 7:30 on Sundays.

FILMS ARE SCHEDULED
For Sundance's Last Snows. Two final film programs, with eight or nine pictures planned for each evening starting at 9 p.m., will mark the last weekend of the season for Sundance, in Upper Black Eddy, Bucks County, Pa. The pendent American Cinema.

These film-makers work in seclusion, without large budgets, publicity, staff or stars. The films do not cater to the tastes of mass audiences, and thus are not presented at commercial theatres.

Among Friday's films are Stan Vanderbeek's award-winning "Science Friction," a satire on our preoccupation with rockets; "At Land," by Maya Deren; and Robert Breer's "Fist Fight." Also included is a football game condensed into six minutes, a lampoon of movie previews, and a wild sequence in an elevator entitled, "Going Up."

Saturday's films include "Black Vision," a short, som-

YUM-YUM

Shetland With Whipped Cream. You've never seen anything so delectable as the colors this fall in Bellows' shetland sweater collection, unless it's the matching colors that provide slacks, skirts and shells to co-ordinate and match.

"Fuschia heather," for a start. Heathery tones soften any tendency toward that fuschia stridency and leave you with a rich vibrating color that's becoming to almost any woman, but especially to you. Bellows shows it in a classic cardigan, pullover, pants, hop-sacking skirts with "A," or straight lines and a white wool ribbed dickey to show at the neckline . . . a master stroke.

"Mauve heather" is a bowl of raspberries with heavy cream. Look at the giant turtle pullover with its matching slacks, and think how warm that neckline will be when the wind blows. Mauve combines with a narrow hunter green stripe in one unusual pullover.

Cornflower blue, a vintage Burgundy, allspice brown, a navy that's really blue and not almost-black, a serene sea green and a wonderful color called "seome" that looks like a warm biscuit with melted butter — well, you see what we mean by "colors?"

And even socks to match, by the way; in fact, the range of mix and match is so wide that bewildered indecision will proably drive you to buy one of everything in every color.

Bellows' Danskin tops come in food colors, too, like pumpkin, chocolate, cafe au lait. They're Helanca stretch, some with mock-turtle necks, all with three-quarter sleeves. Wool shells have buttondown collars, if you please, besides the V-neck, mock turtle and jewel.

Bellows likes its new printed sweaters from Germany, designed to wear with knit slacks (pull-ons, no zip-per). Nine slack colors match exactly any one of the two or three colors in each floral design. two shades of green to match a shaded leaf, or three shades of pink to harmonize with a petalled rose. Sweaters are cardigans.

Print shows again on velour pull-overs and there are wool slacks as well as knit ones to match, match, match.

The crochet needle has been in-and-out all over Europe this year, judging from Bellows' collection of sweaters and "knit" suits. Italian needlewomen have sent over cardigans whose open-work offers peep-holes for the contrasting shell you'll wear underneather. Meion, turquoise, olive, or white sweaters and you select the shell.

A crocheted suit has a gored "A"-line skirt and a Chanel jacket encircled with an open-work band. We liked it in medium grey, but Bellows can serve you cherry, black or Burgundy.

Well, they crochet in Portugal, too, and the Portuguese suit (Paris-designed, by the way) is a salad of mixed greens with a chiffon-lined knit blouse, soft to eye and hand.

Knits are all around, starting at $40 for a handsome little three-piecer, and extending to $185.

Cashmere, like baby hair to the touch, makes a $75 knit suit. In a second ensemble, it appears in the sweater as friend and companion to the wool in the flannel skirt, both in mustard gold.

Ensembles this winter — oh, yes, winter will arrive: Bellows is counting on it—feature full-length coats with full-length dresses underneath. A grey herringbone tweed coat whose thin belt emerges tentatively from a pair of low pockets, covers a grey knit dress with roll collar.

GOT A WALL?

Paper it. Murals and vinyl papers, living-room style, occupy the considerations of Morris Maple this late summer, and if you are planning autumn decorating, pay an hour into the parking meter and look at some wallpaper patterns.

(But don't think you must re-paper just because some grease went off its course. "SPOT", a grease-remover in a spray can, is on the Morris Maple counter, waiting for your $1. Take it home, hold it nine inches away from the grease-spot, and let fly. A grease - absorbing powdery substance will form and you brush away both powder and grease after a drying interval. Stubborn spots will need more than one go-around, we discovered, but keep at it.)

Well, have you chosen the mural for the dining-room? Schumacher shows "Gran Via," an architectural vista with walks, plazas and stairways like something from a rare old book. Maybe you'd prefer the Scottish scene with golfers, castle and the sea beyond the moors.

But murals aren't just for formal traditional rooms. Surprise your young son with "Main Street," Schumachers' cheerful comment on the old west, with U. S. Marshall's office and everything. Or bring the flavor of the east to your bedroom with "Ardavan," James Seaman's Persian mural in gold and pastels.

Morris Maple reminds all housewives once again that vinyl doesn't have to mean sea-shells in the bathroom and onions in the kitchen. Wall-o-Vin has grass papers, fragile to look at but tough and durable to live with. You'd never suspect that "Lantern" with its delicacy of line, is scrubbable vinyl. And Wall-o-Vin patterns are only $2.59 a single roll, by and large.

Sanitas, too, has all-vinyl papers in non-vinyl patterns. Pom-poms of lilac and pale blue overlap against white in one of these, and real live looking grapes in an embossed pattern on another. But we like the ticking. Yep — straight old plain ticking, just like grandfather's cloth, in red-white or blue-white stripes. Scrub away.

OPEN A BOOK

And Let in the Breeze. People always say they have more time to read in the summer, but mothers do even more car-pooling, what with tennis lessons, swimming invitations, can-I-play-with-Susie-on-the-other-side-of-town and day camp every morning at 9, and Daddy is either playing golf or mowing what's left of the lawn, so when do we read?

Answer for yourself. All we know is that Mole's Book Shop, open cooly until 11 p.m. every evening, is stocked with books like a stream with trout. Begin with "The Making of the President: 1964 Theodore H. White's sequel to the 1960 volume, sad how nice it must be, as an author, to know you've got a best-seller every four years!

Still on the non-fiction shelf, we like John Updike's "Assorted Prose." "The Kandy-Kolored Tangerine-Flake Streamline Baby" is by the other Tom Wolfe, as if you didn't know, and reading it will send you right down the labyrinthine ways of youth in the '60's. Is it fiction or not?

"Is Paris Burning?" is another Male favorite this summer and so is "Experience of War," Kenneth Davis' book about America in World War II, and that one alone will keep you in the hammock all the rest of the summer.

Young people will reach for "Great Tales of Escape," a volume about Allied airmen in World War II—true tales, every one. The younger members of the family will like "A Day at the LBJ Ranch." It's only $1.95, and the escape book is only $1.50 Cheaper than library fines.

Opera in the Park

The Princeton Opera Company will give its second "Opera in the Park" program of the summer in Columbus Park, Trenton, Saturday evening at 8:30.

The company will begin the evening with the second act of "La Traviata" by Verdi. Debbie Truaal, a 1964 winner of the Marion Anderson Scholarship, will sing the role of Violetta. Others taking part will be Charles Pugsley, a graduate student at Columbia Teachers College, New York City, and S.T. Kimbrough, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Bay Head, and a candidate for a doctor of theology degree at Princeton Seminary.

"The Old Maid and the Thief," a one act opera by Gaancarlo Menotti will complete the program. The role of Miss Todd will be sung by either Muriel Long or Mary Witte. Virginia Cole, Mary Ferrell and Mr. Kimbrough are also in the cast.

AUTOMATIC POOL MAINTENANCE

Two new developments eliminate 90% of the time and effort spent in keeping pools sparkling clean and clear for healthy, carefree swimming.

AUTOMATIC POOL CLEANING

All new Aquatech Pools now feature the No-Vac system that replaces manual vacuum cleaning by keeping sediment in motion and directing it toward the drain where it is carried to the filter and removed. Only Aquatech has No-Vac.

AUTOMATIC WATER TREATMENT

Aquatech's new Di-Halo brominator is a guaranteed system of automatic chemical feed that eliminates hit-or-miss hand-fed methods. It keeps pool water constantly up to test without eye irritation, odor or taste.

With automatic vacuum cleaning and a guaranteed system of chemical feed you can enjoy a completely carefree pool. This is push-button pool care—rest assured by Aquatech.

For a lifetime of enjoyment consult an Aquatech representative—without obligation.

Aquatech standards meet all local and state engineering requirements.

Rhymes of the Times

"Jolt" rhymes with "Bolt" and "Lightning" with "Frightening."

What other rhyme scheme Could be more Enlightening?

Monday night's electrical storm made its presence felt in several places, but it did bring more welcome rain and cooler weather.

The latter won't be with us through the weekend, however, with the thermometer beginning to move upwards again along about Friday. No more rain for a while, but at this point, August precipitation is actually well above normal.

Topics Of The Town

opposition is firmer than ever."

Among other arguments, Mr. Reiche pointed out that under the distance requirements of the proposed ordinance, Nassau Hall and Pyne, Nassau and Stanhope, the Chapel and Firestone Library, to name just a few, are all illicitly close to each other.

What alarms the University more than anything is the word "existing," in the new ordinance. This could mean that any modification of existing buildings like Nassau Hall, Pyne or Firestone would require a variance.

Also, the site plan requirements would mean appearances before three bodies (Zoning, Planning and Council) and because the Planning Board would not be required to tell the Zoning Board why it was turning down a site plan, the applicant could find himself in a Kafka-esque world in which he had no idea why he was turned down or on what basis he should appeal.

And Now, B-4. As for B-4, the owners of business firms objected to the ordinance for the fourth time, and the residents of Jugtown supported it for the fourth time, because everybody wants to preserve "Princeton" but ideas about how to do it vary widely.

Patricia Gehlert said that business firms and stores want "Princeton" even more than anybody because the Princeton atmosphere is good business.

But Walter Furman, 59 Scott Lane, said that regulation of some kind was required, and he warned Council that people who opposed the ordinance had "an ax to grind."

"Don't worry," Mayor Patterson said, "we know who's for and who's against. We even know what you're going to say before you say it."

FLUORIDE? NO!

Committee Formed. "We object to mass medication, dictatorially administered without the right to refuse or abstain."

This is the position taken by a new "Citizens' Water Committee of Princeton" formed to fight the forthcoming fluoridation of Princeton's water supply.

The Princeton Water Company announced early this summer that fluoridation would begin in August. Company officials said this week that the equipment was on its way, but that a specific starting date could be named as yet.

Fluoridation was accepted by Borough Council Tuesday night (see above) and filled Town Topics' mail box (see pages 15 and 16.)

The Citizens' Water Committee held its organizational meeting on August 9 and elected Mrs. Arthur Beddow, co-chairman, with another co-chairman scheduled to be chosen later. Mrs. L. B. Webster will serve as treasurer.

"Since there are practical alternatives (to fluoridation), we believe that every citizen should have the right to make his own decision," the Committee said in a public statement.

Glass is one of the reasons that The Thorne Pharmacy in Princeton Junction is a very bright place.

It's nice to have a drug store with an all-glass front. That way the natural sunlight can brighten up the place (although we do use fluorescent lights to help Mother Nature.) Also . . . all that glass lets you look in when you're passing by—and, it lets us look out, too. There's a lot of space to keep bright at Thorne's. It's the largest and brightest drug store in Princeton Junction — and there's a lot of space between the aisles.

There's quite a stock at Thorne's. Hundreds of items, and almost all of the brand names you know so well. (And, of course, this includes our spacious and well-stocked precription department.)

What is glass? Glass is what lets you look into The Thorne Pharmacy in Princeton Junction.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Princeton issued a statement setting forth the Christian Science position on fluoridation.

"We wish to make it clear at the outset," said the statement, prepared by the church's Committee on Publication for New Jersey, "that it is certainly not our desire or intention to oppose legitimate public health measures to those who desire them.

"But when it comes to compulsory fluoridation or any other program that would undermine the basic freedom of the individual in matters of personal health and religion, then we feel it is our duty to register our convictions and deepest protest."

The Christian Science statement points out that the church is not concerned with the medical question of the efficiveness or ineffectiveness of fluoridation. Citing such methods of fluoridation as tablets, toothpaste and direct application, the statement suggests that these methods can be used in a community-wide program "without infringing unnecessarily on the rights of those who do not want to take part."

Does State Have Power? Exploring the fluoridation question beyond Princeton's borders, Borough Township attorney Gordon Griffin conferred this week with Dr. Powers Munscher, a deputy attorney general on the staff of the New Jersey State Board of Health to see what role the state might play.

"The State Board of Health believes that fluoridation is desirable," Mr. Munscher said, "but we cannot order a community to fluoridate. We have the power to specify how fluoridation is to be effected; that is, we lay down the engineering 'how to' rules, but that is all."

However, the Public Health Council of the state Board of Health, a group of medical, technical and professional people, believes that it may have the power to promulgate a code under which fluoridation could be required of a community by the state. The Council has asked the attorney general for his opinion, and is waiting for his reply.

FORRESTAL UNIT HIT in Monday's Storm. For all the violence of Monday's thunderstorm, damage around Princeton was slight.

Lightning struck a vent pipe at the Princeton-Pennsylvania accelerator at Forrestal Research Center about 9 p.m., causing a small fire which the Forrestal fire unit quickly extinguished.

Another bolt hit a 100-ft. locust tree on the property of Mrs. John H. Stevens, 15 Bonnie Brae Street, splitting the trunk vertically, shearing off all bark and hurling limb fragments as far as 75 feet.

On Mountain Avenue, a tree felled by lightning took telephone wires with it. Service was out for more than 24 hours.

Rainfall was 1.14", comparing favorably with 1.64" last week. This is already more than the total for all July.

PRINCETON WOMAN HURT in Bus Accident in Wales. Mrs. Gladys T. White, 154 Library Place, was injured last week in a bus accident near Newton, Wales. Although at first reported in critical condition suffering from head injuries, a later report listed Mrs. White as "resting comfortably" in Newton Hospital.

Widow of Philip T. White, she had been touring Britain, Scotland and Wales since early

The following summary of the Princeton Summer Scene was addressed, anonymously, to TOWN TOPICS' Social Editor, a somewhat non-existent soul. Apparently its lighthearted touch permeated even the envelope, which the Past Office happily delivered despite the absence of the usual five-cent stamp.

This is a unique and exhilarating place in which to live and work. It is made so by its architectural excellencies, the cultural glow of its famed University, the wealth and variety of its enterprises, and not a little by its women.

Per curved inch, the women of Princeton are second to none. Take a settler, seat on the bench at Palmer Square of a sultry midday and see. Their carriage, their dress, their features and their figures will reward you for your hour.

The women, and girls, of Princeton want you to look at them. They expect you to do it. They dress for it, they groom for it. Only a fool would or could deny them their wish.

What more delights the eye than a lovely young woman, fresh faced and natural looking, in a loose-fitting cotton dress, sun-brightened hair free and flowing, barefoot in summer, or perhaps sandaled or well-heeled? The invitation is obvious as she walks down Nassau Street, erect, shoulders back, eyes forward, "Take your time. Observe at length. See what you can see. And isn't it all lovely to look at, and if I were yours, which I am not, to touch and caress and hold."

You asked me, Doctor Shmidt, what it was that brought me to this state of mind. This obsession to live here in the fountain on this rubber raft.

Well, it was the females of this town that did it to me. And I don't mind in the very least.

Sit with me in the spray. It's almost time, they'll be coming soon. Relax. It's going to be a good day. It's warm enough for shorts today.

Voting Machines Urged

In an open letter to the Borough Board of Education, the Borough Citizens Save Our Schools Committee presses for the use of voting machines in the October 7 school referendum.

SOS states, "As a Board member suggested in appraising the unusually heavy turnout, counting 2,000 paper ballots by hand is totally unreasonable." Stressing the speed, convenience, accuracy and impartiality of the machines, SOS notes they have been used in Princeton for the past 10 years.

"Cost, the only other factor, is minimal. In deciding the fate of a $2½ million school, and a system valued at many millions more, surely an amount 'well under $300' should not be the deciding factor."

July with her grandson and a friend of his, both of Connecticut. She had been traveling daily to the National Elisteddfod Music Festival, and the accident occurred on one of those trips. She had planned to return to Princeton around September 1.

BLOOD NEEDED

More Donors Sought. When you're flat on your back in the hospital and you need blood, you need it right now.

This means that when Princeton Hospital needs blood donors, it needs them right now. The need this summer is acute in Princeton, and both the hospital and the Red Cross urge residents of the area to call the Red Cross and sign up: 924-2404

In June, 157 persons gave their blood at Princeton Hospital—it was the most active month in 1965 so far. And, as the Red Cross reminds all its donors, every one of the 157 pints was needed to save a life.

Summertime is always a low time for the blood program because so many donors go away on vacation. However, there is an increasing year-round need and the Red Cross plans this fall to launch a blood registration program to sign up additional donors.

Do You Need Me? As a volunteer blood donor, you are called only twice a year, unless you want to give more frequently. Five times a year is perfectly safe, from a medical point of view.

When you volunteer, your blood is typed, and your medical history recorded. (The Red Cross and the Hospital will not accept blood from anyone who has had infections hepatitis.)

Then, when you receive a call from the Red Cross, you go to Princeton Hospital at a scheduled time. A technician reviews your medical history, takes your temperature and blood pressure and tests your hemoglobin to make sure you are physically able to part with the pint of blood.

If you are accepted, you will be out of the hospital and on your way back to work only half an hour after you walked in the laboratory door.

Yes, We Need You. As most laymen know, blood is vital for people who have been injured in serious accidents or who have been severely burned. The man who faces major surgery or who has a blood disease also requires blood.

Other requirements are not so obvious to the average donor. Exchange transfusions for newborn babies, for example, involve a complete and total exchange of blood, and the transfusion must be made in many cases, shortly after birth. This means that the blood donor may be summoned out of bed by an urgent 2 a.m. call from the Red Cross.

Victims of bleeding ulcers provide the most dramatic example of desperate need for blood. One patient—and he's alive today—received 43 pints of blood, 19 of them in a single day. Another patient received 28 pints in 24 hours.

And perhaps most dramatic of all is the blood donor program itself. Blood is free, for any patient in Princeton Hospital. All donors are volunteers and the only charges are those involved in technical processing and administering the blood to the patient. Hospitalization plans usually pay for these.

THREE HOMES ENTERED

In Princeton Township. Princeton Township experienced a series of burglaries over the weekend. One house was completely ransacked, and valuable items were taken from two others. All occurred some time between Friday end Sunday nights.

A 19-inch portable television set and countless small items, including men's and ladie's watches, rings, bracelets and other jewelry were taken from the home of Thomas D. Truitt, 144 Riverside Drive. Police said that a garage door leading to the basement had been forced open, and that the first and second floors and the attic were ransacked. The value of the missing items has not been determined.

Ahmed Azmy, 413-A Butler Avenue, reported the theft of a $150 movie camera from his home, and a $100 table radio was lifted from the home of Dorran Robertson Jr., 93 Maclean Circle. The thieves entered through rear screen doors in both cases, police said.

Another weekend larceny in the Township netted a car radio belonging to Daniel K. Herrick, 487 Stockton Street. Mr. Herrick told police that he returned home around 11 Sunday night and parked the car in his driveway. The next morning, he found the car's hood up, the front seat pushed back, and the radio missing.

Borough police reported one breaking and entry over the past week at the home of Mrs. Rhea Williamson, 279 Franklin Avenue. Police said that there was no sign of forced entry, and that the burglar probably entered through the front door using a piece of cellophane. No immediate estimate of what was taken was available.

TWO HOMES RANSACKED

In Lawrence Township. Thieves entered the homes of two Lawrence Township residents last week, stealing numerous items valued at several thousand dollars from one, and two expensive cameras from the other.

Weekend burglars took jewelry, table silver, a portable television set, binoculars and other items from the home of Robert M. Dix, 2935 Main Street, Lawrenceville. Mr. Dix, an attorney with law offices in Princeton, discovered the INSTANT LIFE: The blood bank at Princeton Hospital is replenished by Mrs. William Abrams, giving her 21st donation, and Benjamin Shimberg his, 17th, while medical technician Lorraine Zarosa assists. The record for the number of donations is held by Miss Frances Swinefoot who has given 28 pints. Princeton's newest donor is David Rosner, who signed up on his 18th birthday. (Donors must be between 18 and 69.) The Joint Red Cross-Princeton Hospital program has recorded its 18,000th donation. Dr. Alan Soler was the donor.

Beauty ON THE SQUARE

By Archimedes (Bernard)

Ladies, if you think that preoccupation with beauty and glamour comes with maturity . . . forget it. A recent survey on the use of beauty aids by high school girls found that the use of eye make-up products such as eye shadow, eyebrow pencils, eyelash curlers, etc., has more than doubled in the fast three years. It would appear from this that even the lush blush of youth calls for an assist here and there.

Also, among the young set it was discovered that 94 per cent use hand lotion, 97 per cent find it prudent to use a deodorant daily and 94 per cent shampoo their hair at least once weekly.

Here the finest and most qualified hair care experts for miles around are ready to serve you. From a shampoo to an exciting new hair style you will find a simple and effective shortcut to beauty at TAVERNWOOD BEAUTY MANOR AND COSMETIC SHOP, 69 Palmer Square West. Phone: 924-3983 . . . ACCIDENT REPORT

Three in Township. Three automobile accidents in the Township last week caused fairly extensive damage to three of the vehicles involved, and slight damage to two others.

On August 4, Walter F. Burton, 42, of Newark was traveling south on the Great Road, when his car crossed completely over to the other lane causing a head on collision with a car driven by Francis X. Critchlow, 41, Harbourton-Woodsville Road, Hopewell. The entire front ends of both vehicles were damaged. Police charged Mr. Burton with failing to keep to the right.

On August 6, Dorothy R. Sanders, 10, Mill Road, Cranbury escaped injury herself, but damaged the right front bumper, grille and hood of her car when she hit a concrete post as she started to cross the Harrison Street bridge over Carnegie Lake. There was no damage to the bridge, but Miss Sanders' car was towed away.

A minor accident took place on Alexander Street last Thursday, when H. Lyman Miller, 24 Dickinson Street, ran his motorscooter into the back of a car operated by James W. Tuska, 38, Titusville Road, Pennington. Mr. Tuska was stopped in traffic at the time, and both Mr. Miller and his passenger, John Black, Menlo Park, Calif., fell to the ground. There were no injuries, and only slight damage to the vehicles

BIRTHS

Twenty-five Born. Fourteen boys and 11 girls were born last week at Princeton Hospital.

Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Meyer, Dutchtown Road, Belle Mead, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Burchfield, 63 N. Main Street, Pennington, both on August 2. Mr. and Mrs. David E. McGuire, Mt. McCosh Circle, Mr. and Mrs. George Vienkowski, 5-N Hibben Apartments, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shea, 20 Witherspoon Street, all on August 3. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kreutzner, 74 N. Main Street, Pennington, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Iacovelli, 41 Emerald Road, Kendall Park, both on August 4. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burden, Village Road East, Princeton Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, John Tindall Farm, Princeton Junction, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Runyon, 110 Taylor Terrace, Hopewell, all on August 5. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kelly, 63 N. Main Street, Cranbury, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Carpenter, 44 Miry Brook Road, Trenton, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fisher, 221-D Halsey Street, all on August 6, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, 25 Henry Street, New Brunswick, August 7.

Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daniels, 166 Witherspoon Street, August 2. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, New Road, Monmouth Junction, August 3; Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Moss, 453 Walnut Lane; Mr. and Mrs. William Royal, North Post Road, Princeton Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Burns, 216 Maxwell Avenue Hightstown; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Gerstenhaber, 64 Clover Lane, and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Kidd, 157 Maxwell Avenue, Hightstown, all on August 4; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Scheiner, 29 Hamilton Avenue, August 5; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wickert, Sunset Drive, Hopewell, August 6, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Krause, 259 Mt. Lucas Road, and Mr. and Mrs. David J. Barren, 164 Dodds Lane, both on August 7

VANDALS ACTIVE AGAIN

Four Cars Damaged. Incidents of vandalism cropped up again last week, as four cars in Princeton Township had their windshields or rear windows broken by bricks.

While on patrol early Sunday morning, Township police spotted the smashed rear window of a car belonging to Diana M. Lees, 32 Mountain Avenue. Part of a brick was found inside the vehicle, which had been parked outside the home since 10:30 the previous night.

Fluoridated Tongue in Cheek.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Your correspondents have won me over to unalterable opposition to fluoridation. Here are my reasons, gathered from your paper:

1. It is unnecessary. Of course it is. I am shocked at the number of unnecessary things we insist on having. Shakespeare I am sure never had multiple vitamins or even a flush toilet. He probably didn't even have any teeth when he wrote The Tempest. Let us not only oppose fluoridation but begin to eliminate a lot of other unnecessary things.

2. It is dangerous. It must be because it involves adding deadly poison to our drinking water. In this connection I believe we should all unite to insist that the Water Companies ask the Township to conduct a referendum before adding any more nitrine to our water. Even a typhoid epidemic would be a small price to pay for the right to decide personally what should go into the water.

3. The decision is up to the public. I should have realized this sooner, but I was misled by the fact that dentists are practically 100 percent in favor, and after all one would think that they would stand to win with decay. Doctors, including pediatricians, are, I understand, equally enthusiastic, but they have no right to take our freedom from us.

Of course I can foresee some problems. If the final decision in matters involving expert knowledge is to reside with the people, what shall I do if my doctor tells me I need my appendix out? I can hardly ask for a referendum for fear of creating a precedent, but what reasons would I have to consider his judgement final? From now on I shall be dubious about the decisions even of a group of experts.

4. It is enforced medication. I am ashamed that this didn't occur to me soon enough to oppose firmly compulsory immunizations for my children, but it isn't too late for me to urge them the refuse any such treatment for my grandchildren. Of course this may keep them out of school, but which is more important, freedom to contract and possibly transmit smallpox and diptheria or an education? Adults of course will have to forego trips abroad because of compulsory vaccination for re - entry, but this is a small price to pay for an easy conscience.

These points form the logical basis for my opposition to fluoridation, but I must admit that I think it also instinctive opposition. The fact is that I am absolutely opposed to change, even for the better.

(Water) Cooled Reasoning.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

In some communities where fluoridation of water has become an issue, the temperature of the debate has reached the boiling point. As an opponent of fluoridation, I hope that even its most ardent supporters can coolly agree with me on the following points:

(1) As to the medical values and risks involved: The majority, perhaps the vast majority, of the medical profession favors fluoridation. This opinion is not, however, unanimous, and eminent physicians have pointed out the possibility of side effects which might not become apparent for years, another way of saying until it might be too late to counteract these side effects. The history of medicine shows that the majority opinion has not on all occasions been the correct one, and that even scientists can be fallible.

(2) As to the civil liberties issue involved: Analogies are made with chlorination of water and compulsory vaccination. Both of these are aimed at the prevention of possibly fatal diseases. Has anyone ever died of a cavity? As alternate methods of fluoridation are easily available to those who desire it, let them use those methods. If they are too lazy to do this, they can hardly care enough about it to justify its imposition on others, when dangerous, much less fatal, diseases are not involved.

(3) Some opposition to fluoridation comes from the lunatic fringe, people who are willing to believe such absurdities as that it is a communist plot to brain-wash the American people by subtle drug infusion. Again, it is false analogy to assume that all opponents are therefore crackpots. It is also possible that a crack-pot can be on the right side of an issue for quite the wrong reasons.

also early Sunday morning, a brick was tossed through the rear window of a car parked in front of 164 Dodds Lane, and some of the chrome was damaged. It was owned by Marion F. Barrer of Philadelphia.

Sometime between Monday night and Tuesday morning, two more vehicles received the same treatment. The rear window was smashed and the trunk lid scratched of a car owned by Leslie L. Burns, 105 Shady Brook Lane. The car was parked on Marion Road West at the time.

A vehicle belonging to Kepner, Tregoe and Associates, 6 Charlton Street, had the windshield broken and its radio antenna snapped off, while parked in front of 16 Overbrook Drive. In both cases, a brick was found in or near the vehicles.

FIVE LICENSES REVOKED

By Princeton Magistrates. The licenses of three drivers convicted in Borough Traffic Court were revoked this week, while two others received similar sentences in Township Court.

Edward M. Esposito, 19, 9 Harris Road, lost his driving privileges for four months and was fined $25 for reckless driving. He also paid $15 for failure to have a license in his possession.

James L. Cunningham, 19, 20 Bank Street, and Gary Gagoly, 19, 39 Clover Place, Franklin Park, will undergo 15-day revocations for careless driving. The former was fined $20, the latter $15.

In the Township, charges of racing on a public highway brought 90-day revocations to Michael DiDonato, 61 Leigh Avenue, and William V. Scott, 19, Route 1. Both were assessed $30.

Others fined in the Borough: Josef Gross, 40, 57 Jefferson Road, $15, passing a red light; William F. Wilburn, 37, Westminster Choir College, $12, red light; Valerie J. Bellenger, 21, 54 Pine Street, $19, speeding; Robert G. Maxwell, 17, 219 Edgerstoune Road, following too closely.

In the Township Mario A. Petrecca, 22, 44 Erdman Avenue, paid $15 for careless driving, while William S. Brackett, 29, R. D. 1, Hopewell, paid $14. V. N. Zavrykin, 76, 100 Battle Road Circle, was fined $8 for making an improper turn. He pleaded not guilty.

Water Co. Open to Suit

To the Editor of Town Topics:

A number of interested citizens went to the August 2 meeting of the Township Committee. They were strongly opposed to being forcibly medicated with fluorine put into the public water supply.

I believe that the following correctly and fairly represents what was said on the subject:

To the question whether the Committee had ordered fluoridation, the answer was no.

To the question whether the Board of Health had ordered fluoridation, the answer was that the Board of Health had "recommended" it.

It was indicated that fluoridation would begin on September 1, and that the Township Committee would do nothing to stop or delay it.

A number of interesting problems are posed by this situation. An important one is: "By whose authority and on whose responsibility is fluorine to be added to the drinking water of 20,000 people?" I would consider it very doubtful whether the Township Board of Health had the authority to impose mass dosage on normally healthy people, in the absence of any emergency. In any case, this would seem to be beside the point, because according to the Township Committee, the Board of Health only "recommended" it.

If the Township Committee only "endorsed" the "recommendation" of the Board of Health, the Committee would appear to be carefully avoiding the responsibility involved in issuing an order, and thus there would be no legal obligation on the part of the Princeton Water Company to fluoridate. If this is the case, the Water Company is left with the full responsibility for their acts in mixing fluorine with the water, and as a private body, of course, they would seem to have no authority whatsoever to do so.

Anyone who considered himself injured by fluoridation could sue the Water Company for damages, and it would be impossible for the Water Company to plead in defense that it was acting under higher authority because apparently no order has been issued by any conceivable higher authority in this case.

The position of the Water Company appears unenviable; nevertheless it seems certain as I write this that they are determined to proceed with the fluoridation.

The whole matter is complicated further by the fact that both the Township and Borough are involved, and questions arise about the authority of one governing body to impose its will on the citizens of another.

We can only hope that fluoridation will be delayed until wiser counsels prevail. But as things stand the only hope of delay seems to lie in a court injunction, and time is running out rapidly.

SAMUEL G. FRANTZ

64 Battle Road

Fluoridation vs. Radiation.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

I wrote a letter to you which appeared in your July 29th edition stating the reasons why I was for fluoridation and why we should accept it. However in your edition of August 5 there was a letter from a Mr. Bannard stating that my letter was among other things "insidious" and tantamount to "passivity". I am sorry that my letter offended Mr. Bannard, but I had no intention for anyone to be passive. I indicated that it would have been better if we had a referendum so that the people would use their minds in discussing this controversy instead of resorting to their emotions.

It is very interesting to read of the damaging effects of sodium fluoride. But let's examine a relaxed controversy, that of atomic radiation.

Not more than five miles from Princeton there is a water-cooled nuclear reactor and also Forrestal Research Center, which is trying to develop a fusion reactor (lame the hydrogen bomb). We know what could happen if there were an accident at either one of these places. However, there has been no controversy, no fear, no panic, no referendum.

These installations were built without the consent of the people. I have no intention to start a new controversy but only to prove a point — that we should accept fluoridation with the dignity and open mindedness that benefits a town of this caliber."

CHANGES ANNOUNCED

At D. Van Nostrand. The appointment of Theodore A. Saros as assistant vice-president of the D. Van Nostrand Co., book publishers whose offices are at 120 Alexander Street, was announced this week. Several other personnel changes were made known at the same time.

Mr. Saros, who joined Van Nostrand's editorial staff in 1946, will continue his responsibilities as director of the firm's College Department. He is presently serving on the Paperback Committee of the American Textbook Publishers Institute.

David G. Sparks has been named Senior Editor, Social Sciences, in the College Department. He has been Social Science Editor with Van Nostrand since 1960.

Other appointments are those of Lucien S. Marchand as Editor of Mathematics and Engineering; Miss Sara Lou Johnson as Assistant Editor in the College Editorial Department; Jay Wilson and Robert E. Hendrickson as Associate and Assistant Editors, respectively, in the College Department.

SALES UP SHARPLY

At Dynaplex. Sales amounting to $1,183,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30 — a figure more than double that for the preceding 12 months — were reported this week by the Dynaplex Corporation. The company maintains a plant and offices at 221 Lawrence Road, Trenton, for research, development and fabrication of aerospace solid-state telemetry equipment, and has broken ground for a new plant on a five-acre tract in West Windsor Township.

Ayban Hakimoglu, president of Dynaplex, said that the earnings per share for the period amount to about 38 cents. No comparative figures was given because of the recent public offering of the company's stock. Dynaplex had approximately 403,000 shares of its common stock outstanding at the year's end.

Sodium fluoride has no rights, neither does nuclear-radiation. But if these installations were built for a good reason which they were, then our water should be fluoridated and the authorities have a good reason for so doing.

ANTHONY E. MEYER
22 Carnegie Drive

Proof Wanted.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Since writing a letter about fluoridation to TOWN TOPICS last week, I have done some more reading on the subject. It seems indisputable that sodium fluoride in the water supply reduces cavities. Since it does not work by "armour - plating," that is, by covering the teeth with some impenetrable coating, or by neutralizing mouth acids, it must have its effect through a compositional change in the teeth.

Apparently sodium fluoride renders certain calcium compounds which make up the bones and teeth much less soluble, thereby "hardening" teeth and making them relatively invulnerable to the acids which cause decay. Presumably it has the same effect on our bones.

Now this is a layman's rough guess of why sodium fluoride does what it does. With all this controversary I should think that someone who really knows what happens would write a letter to the paper and let everyone know.

Perhaps it will turn out that my description is faulty, but clearly sodium fluoride makes some kind of biological change somewhere in the body. It has to, otherwise there would be no results. Maybe this change is confined to the teeth, maybe not; maybe it is harmless, maybe not.

But my instincts tell me that something is wrong. After all, we are not fighting diphteria or polio, we are fighting cavities. I am simply not willing to drink fluoridated water without knowing how it affects me, at any rate, not for the sake of reducing cavities.

There are too many indications that sodium fluoride might be bad for me, and I want someone to show me that it cannot be bad for me. This is not an unreasonable position. . . .

W. DARBY BANNARD
11 Madison Street

Cost Questioned.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is the text of an open letter to the directors of the Princeton Water Co.: Robert Kean, president; Henry Patterson, executive vice-president; George Griffing, B. Franklin Bunn, George Loos, Edgar Smith and Frederick Blaicher:

In February, 1965, the water rates went up 27%, an expense which will be reflected in increased rents and overhead.

How much would it cost to fluoridate the water? Such expense should be itemized on our water bill so that we may deduct this item as a medical expense on our tax return.

Fluoridation would set a precedent to further medication of our water and further expense. The medical profession has a right to change its mind as research brings new methods and new drugs to the fore.

We have seen sulfa superceded by penicillin, and streptomycin, in turn, become widely used. Therefore, sodium fluoride may prove itself outmoded, and we would be burdened with the expense of obsolete machinery and a drug supply which is out of date.

It would therefore appear more reasonable to supply small children with bottled fluoridated water, sold to individuals by the water company or the drug stores, thereby simplifying your billing and our tax returns.

Jaycees Aided YES.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Two years ago, the Youth Employment Service of Princeton was selected by the JAYCEES to share in the proceeds from the annual football classic.

As a result of the gift, YES established a scholarship fund to aid registered students. It has been possible for us to assist 17 students who desire courses for additional training after high school to aid them in obtaining permanent employment.

We have seen at close range what the proceeds can and hope that the Princeton JAYCEES will have a sell-out again this year.

DECCA RELEASES RECORD

Made By Princeton Orchestra. The first recording made by the Princeton Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Nicholas Harsanyi, has been released by the Decca Record Company. Included in this recording are the Dvorak Serenade for Strings, Op. 22 and the Mozart Divertimento in D, K.136.

The recording was made in April 1965, after the orchestra's Town Hall debut, when critics acclaimed it as one of the finest chamber ensembles in the country. Harold Schonberg of The New York Times said, "Mozart's Divertimento in D went with precision, elegance and expertly - tuned phrasing."

The orchestra will make another recording in the fall. To be released this winter, it will feature the international violin solist, Erica Morini.

Cory S. Kammler

A professor wrote "the art of making stained glass was actually known in prehistoric times. But the first recorded use of stained glass in church windows was in the Cathedral of Reims (969-988 A. D.) It was a developing art requiring great skill, and did not reach its zenith until the 12th Century. It continued for less than two more centuries, then went into decline and was not practiced in the same form for the next four or five centuries. The skilled early craftsmen designed their colored glass to capitalize on the changing light as the sun played upon the window from different angles each hour. The overall effect was wonderful as their windows delighted the eye with everchanging patterns. We can delight you now with terrific service and truly low prices."

Question of the Week

Question: You've heard the expression, "There ought to be a law." What do you think there ought to be a law against?

Where asked: Around town.

Val Dangelo, Trenton, cable splicer for Public Service: There ought to be a law against women drivers. I can't stand them. They're so unpredictable. If you can follow a woman driver, you're a d---good driver!

Mrs. Richard Huber, Constitution Drive, housewife: There ought to be a law against double parking on Nassau Street. My other would be curlers on Nassau Street.

Joseph Testa, Cranbury, upholsterer for Skillman Upholstery: There ought to be a law against women drivers who signal right then turn left. Three times that's happened to me driving to work. I've decided the best thing to do is come to a complete stop. You never can tell what they are going to do.

Lucy Agnese, 82½ Leigh Avenue, Princeton High freshman: There ought to be a law against homework over the weekend.

Mrs. Marian Overton, Garwood, housewife. There ought to be a law against ignorance. It should be a sin not to want to improve your mind.

Lennie Knight, Hightstown, high school student: There ought to be a law against the sloppy way the college kids at Princeton dress. I mean these beards, no shoes and shirts hanging out. There ought to be some sort of dress code. Harvard and Yale don't allow it. There you have to wear a suit tie and jacket.

Rudy Schuler, Rocky Hill, upholsterer for Skillman Upholstery: There ought to be a law against not following the law. We had a good example of that in New York City—that judge's son: Martinis. He was guilty yet he got off. If we have laws, they ought to be obeyed. He got away with it but what would have happened if that had been you or me?

Mrs. John Good, Pittsburgh, housewife: There ought to be a law against drivers who absolutely refuse to signal when they are going to stop to take a parking space.

Arthur Diringer, 9 Pine Street, Princeton High junior. There ought to be a law against letting kids drop out of high school without doing anything else for them such as job training. I think some kind of vocational training should be provided — something—rather than just let them go and fend for themselves.

Miss Julie Shultz, 196 Valley Road, librarian at Princeton Public Library: There ought to be a law against motorcycles taking one whole parking space and against parking meters that take only nickles and pennies. Also, there ought to be a law against rude women.

Bill O'Dea, 141 Red Hill Road, High School freshman: There ought to be a law against big tractor trailer trucks passing right through the center of town.

Mario Cifelli, 28 Leigh Avenue, newspaper delivery and high school sophomore: I think there ought to be a law against the cops making U-turns on Nassau Street. If other drivers can't do it, they shouldn't be able to, either. Also, there ought to be a law permitting kids to sit on the wall in front of Firestone Library.

Mrs. Sally Hartmann, 15 Murray Place, housewife: There ought to be a law against hypocrites. There is enough hypocrisy going around that can be disturbing and can hurt peoples' feelings.

Jack O'Keefe, Trenton, cable splicer: There ought to be a law against paying alimony or support when there are no children involved.

Miss Dorothy Avery, 16 Marion Road E. student nurse: I don't know what kind of law there could be that would protect you, but I am sure there ought to be some kind of law against the type of driving done in this town. People sideswiping your car in parking lots and never leaving a note when I'm sure their insurance would cover it.

John Wainwright, 16 Bank Street: This would be a very difficult law to work out but there ought to be a law against governments manipulating their people. The enemy today isn't Communism or Capitalism; the enemy is government. The battle is the government vs. the people. I feel the government tries to intrude too much in the affaire of the people.

report their findings at a general organization meeting to be held in September.

The idea for AEO came from the inter-racial dialogues held by the Presbyterian Church a few months ago. An AEO spokesman said this week, in announcing formation of the group, "Out of those dialogues came the realization that problems arising from inequality of opportunity are not always recognized by those who do not have the problems."

Officers and members of the steering committee of the temporary planning group are Harry Davis and Arthur Clark, moderators; Mrs. Peggy Cole, secretary; Albert Bailey, treasurer and Ralph Fisher, Charles Austin, Mrs. Arthur Clark, Mrs. Paul Costello, Bert Hoebel and Mrs. Martin Katz.

New dialogue groups will be formed in September. Interested persons may obtain information by calling Mr. Clark at 737-2272 or Mr. Hoebel at 466-1822.

PRINCETON TO GET FILE Of Stevenson Papers. Princeton University will receive the private papers of Adlai E. Stevenson, his eldest son, Adlai E. Stevenson III, has disclosed. He is an executor of his father's will.

His son stated, however, that the papers would not be accessible until a biographer chosen by the family has finished with them. The family had asked Archibald MacLeish, the 73-year-old poet and three-time winner of the Pulitzer Prize, to undertake the biography, but he reluctantly declined because of prior writing commitments.

The papers designated for Princeton include drafts of Mr. Stevenson's personal writings, his papers from his two presidential campaigns, drafts of his speeches, important letters he wrote and received, and official government papers connected with his United Nations work. A large share of his papers, chiefly covering his 1952 and 1956 campaigns, were given to the university in May, 1964.

James A. Keels, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Keels, Brunswick Pike, will make his off-Broadway acting debut in "On Borrowed Time," at the Folksbiene Playhouse in Manhattan on August 27 and 28.

A 1960 graduate of Princeton High School, Mr. Keels is currently attending Herbert Berghof's Drama Studio taking courses in scene study and acting techniques. His first appearance in New York was in the role of Lester Pelham in the play "Inside Lester," presented by St. Stephen's Lutheran Church in Brooklyn.

Following that he appeared in "Time Out for Ginger" and "Bachelor's Life." After "On Borrowed Time," Mr. Keels is scheduled for a role in the musical adaptation of "Heidi," another off-Broadway production, opening in September.

Mrs. Carolyn D. Martin, 46 Spring Street, a Princeton real estate broker, was a delegate to the National Association of Real Estate Brokers annual convention in Denver. Mrs. Martin, founder of the New Jersey Branch of the association, served as chairman of the liaison committee for the national group.

Two young women from Princeton will enter the freshman class at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., this fall. They are Miss Barbara D. Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Putnam, 48 Roper Road; and Miss Margaret deF. Woodbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley E. Woodbridge, Carter Road.

Patrolman Michael C. Kopliner Jr., Princeton Township Police Department, attended a five-day conference on Arson and Five Investigation at Rutgers University. The conference was given by the Rutgers Bureau of Government Research and University Extension Division, with the cooperation of the American Insurance Association and the New Jersey Fire Prevention Association.

Susan K. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnson, Bayberry Road, has received a check for $50 from the Indiana University Alumni Club for New Jersey, given to the freshman student from this state who has attained the best scholastic record at Indiana during the past year. One of two valedictorians at Central High School in Hopewell, Miss Johnson is majoring in linguistics with a special interest in semantics. Her first year cumulative average was 3.95 out of a possible four points.

Edward W. Simonsen, Cranbury Neck Road, Plainsboro, has been re-elected chairman of the New Jersey White Potato Industry Council for a third one-year term. LeRoy Dyal, Plainsboro Road, Cranbury, was elected vice-chairman of the Council.

Stephen Burger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burger, 24 Cranston Road, Franklin Park, and Michael Ward, son of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Ward, Dutchtown Road, Belle Mead, have been awarded Lorena Hood Fenn Scholarships at the Columbus Boycholr School. The boys were selected on the basis of outstanding musical ability, scholastic achievement, and their contributions as school leaders and citizens. The scholarships were established by Mrs. Luelle Fenn Stafford, The Great Road, and her sister, Mrs. Henry W. Haynes of Semke Rise in memory of their mother, Mrs. Lorena H. Fenn.

Two Princeton area residents have been awarded degrees at the summer graduation exercises at Trenton State College. Michael Robinson, Carlisl Apartments, Lawrenceville, received a master of arts degree in industrial arts, and Robert F. Patten, 16 Philyet Drive, Hightstown, was awarded a B. A. degree in health and physical education.

Dr. Michael R. Curtis 294 Western Way, Professor of political science at Rutgers University, will participate on a panel discussing British political parties at the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association in Washington, D. C. in September. Dr. Curtis is general editor of an 18-volume series in comparative government being issued by the publishing firm of Harper and Row. He wrote one of the series, "Western European Integration" which was published last month.

John A. Streed, 41 Nassau Place, Princeton Junction, has been named product director for first aid kits and resuscitube airways at Johnson & Johnson. He was formerly assistant product director for first aid kits.

Born in Moline, Ill., Mr. Streed graduated from the University of Illinois, and joined Johnson & Johnson in 1946 as a sales representative. In 1881, he was named field manager for the Hawaiian Sales Division, and in 1963, he joined the New Brunswick marketing group as assistant director of general promotions.

Marian M. Perone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Perone, 3 Willow Street, will attend Russell Sage College, Troy, N. Y. as a freshman this fall.

Blake W. H. Smith, Drakes Corner Road, is spending a week of orientation at Syracuse University for the Africa-Asia Public Service Fellowship program, sponsored by the University's Maxwell Center for the Study of Overseas Operations. The fellowships are usually awarded for one year, but some last longer depending on the wishes of the host government. Travel and living expenses for participants and their families are provided under Ford Foundation grants.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK—I

(This is the first of a series of four articles on Princeton's football prospects for 1965.)

Losses Unusually Heavy. It has been a baker's dozen years since Princeton last graduated as strong a football class as 1965, and it is more than mere coincidence that both the Classes of 1852 and 1965 were the foundations for teams which produced scintillating 9-and-0 records.

Eighteen lettermen — enough to form a good, well-balanced starting eleven at every position, plus several top-flight reserves — received their diplomas in June. More than either of the other two classes on last year's championship squad, they were responsible for the degree of ability which nailed down the Ivy championship a week before the season ended and achieved an average score of 24 points to an extremely meagre six for each of their nine opponents.

Two other teams — Dartmouth and Yale — had more lettermen graduate than did Princeton but none lost as heavily at every position as have the Tigers. On offense, the entire backfield is gone, as are three lineman who helped pave the way for their crunching single wing attack. On defense, half e dozen of last year's seniors were starters: three on the line, both linebackers and the safetyman. The decimation by diploma may not be quite complete but the picture it presents is extremely sieve-like.

During the next four weeks, TOWN TOPICS will present its 12th annual summer football series as a preview of the 1965 season. Following the current evaluation of manpower losses will be a look at the upcoming crop of sophomores. The third article will present possible lineups for the opening game with Rutgers on September 25, while the last will examine the strength and weaknesses of the nine opponents the Tigers will play this fall.

By positions, these are the 18 lettermen who must be replaced:

● Ends: Jack Singer and Jim Batchelder on offense, Jim Hackett on defense. A fine athlete (now playing professional baseball in the St. Louis Cardinals' chain), Singer was a solid blocker and adept pass receiver. Rugged and imbued with the love of contact, Hackett was an all-Ivy choice on defense Batchelder ranked as a leading reserve on offense and their combined loss leaves end one the hardest hit positions.

● Tackles: Another all-Ivy player, the 225-lb. Ernie Pascarella, leaves a big gap at inside tackle. Size and skill such as his gave the backs major assistance when short yardage was crucial. Wendall Cady, 215-lb. defensive tackle, was a key member of that platoon.

● Guards: Three losses here but none unduly serious. The principal casualty by graduation was 190-lb. Don Pettit, a defensive specialist. Ned Porter and Dick Jones developed well last fall but did not earn letters until their senior year.

● Center: Mike Smith, who played no football as a sophomore and was sidelined by injuries for the last half of his junior year, came back strong to hold down this position on the offensive platoon. He blocked well and was guilty of few errors in snapping the ball in the intricate single wing attack.

● Wingbacks: Doug Tufts, the diminutive (165-lb.) operative who blocked as if his frame were 20 pounds heavier and ran his assignments with capable precision, is gone from the starting backfield. Lynn Sutcliffe, who could have played offense but was a sure-fire, speedy safetyman, must be replaced on defense. Also gone is a left-handed passer, John O'Brien, whose career was largely slowed by injuries.

● Quarterbacks: Two tremendous losses whose capabilities will in all probality not be matched by their replacements. Roy Pizzarello ran the 1964 champions with the verve and leadership that a field general must if he is to instill confidence in his team. His blocking was scythe-like, his strategy often made the single wing click as it is designed to on the black board. There is no one approaching his experience on the current squad.

Listed as a quarterback but actually a cornerback on defense, Don Roth was the third of four all-Ivy players among the Tigers' Class of '65. A rare defensive specialist in basketball and lacrosse as well as football, he was a picturesque combination of physical ruggedness (6-2, 209 pounds), consistent ability and poise. Little-used Fred Gouldin, a reserve for three years, was the other quarterback to graduate.

● Fullback: The finest at this position in the Princeton's football history. So versatile and durable that he also served as a linebacker while the outcome was in doubt, Domo Iacavazzi took along with his diploma records in rushing for one season (909 yards); touchdowns for one season (14); for three (31), and points for three (186).

The biggest problem facing Princeton this fall is the degree to which he can be replaced. If the Tigers cannot move inside, the defense can adjust to stop their attack most of the time.

● Tailback: A fine three-year letterman, Don McKay divided his 849 yards in total offense last season almost equally between running and passing. Fast and experienced, he often ran the off-tackle play to perfection and had a real knack for sorting out his blockers.

The 18th letterman to graduate was Pete Riley, an end who saw action solely as a punting specialist. On 43 boots last year, he averaged a satisfactory 33.8 yards, generally kicking high enough to allow good coverage.

TWENTY GAMES ON TAP

For Tiger Hockey Team.

Seeking to improve its 5-17 record of last season, Princeton's varsity hockey team will play a 20-game schedule this winter, including ten league contests and ten against other eastern hockey teams. Half of the games will be in Baker Rink.

The Tiger sextet will again participate in the Nichols Invitational Tournament at Buffalo, N.Y., joining Dartmouth, Harvard and Yale on December 31 and January 1 for this year's event. Norm Wood's skaters, captained by Buss Hall, will open the season with four home games, beginning with Northeastern on December 2 and Boston University, December 4.

The complete schedule:

Dec. 3, Northeastern; 4, Boston University; 8, Army; 11, Brown; 15, Boston College at Boston; 16, Providence College at Providence; 31-Jan. 1, Nichols Tournament at Buffalo.

Jan. 8, Cornell at Ithaca; 12, Colgate; 15, Dartmouth at Hanover; 29, Dartmouth.

Feb. 5, Harvard; 9, St. Nick's H.C.; 12, Yale at New Haven; 16, R.P.I. at Troy; 19, Yale; 26, Brown at Providence.

Mar. 1, Harvard at Cambridge; 5, Cornell.

ERC CLINCHES FIRST

In Business Softball Engineering Research Center split a pair of games last week, and captured the eastern division title of the Business Softball League. Accelerator stood up well under pressure, won a couple of one-run contests, one an extra inning affair, and moved back into a first place tie with RCA 1.

RCA Astro temporarily halted ERC's drive for the title, beating the leaders, 7 to 6. Dave Woodrow won his second game for the Astros, aided by John Reichenecker's two for three, and Morris Amar's two for four. Vince Graziano had three for three, including a home run and two RBIs, and Bill Fiterabend had two hits for the losers.

After dropping that encounter, ERC met Educational Testing for the replay of the final two innings of the disputed game and won 6 to 3. The contest began in the bottom of the sixth with ERC at bat, one on and one out, leading 6 to 3. ETS loaded the

ROCKY HILL WINS TITLE

In Adult Softball League.

Scoring 31 runs in two games Rocky Hill blazed to a first place finish in the Adult Softball League, as the season ended last week. Post season playoffs are scheduled to begin Monday.

Rocky Hill had little trouble crushing the First National Bank, 19 to 8, and disposing of Cenerino's, 12 to 4, the following night. Against the Bank, Bill Wilbur had four hits, George McVaugh, two home runs. Jim Case, George Smith and Jack Bosso bit a homer apiece. Frank Nini had three hits in four trips, including a home run, and Bill Richardson, Bob King and Jim Quinn all had two hits each for the Bank.

Conover Motors split its games, beating the Harrison A.C., 18 to 6 but then losing to the Shopping Center, 17 to 4. For Conover, Frank Delvecio, Joe Tofe, Gary Grover and Tom Johnson all hit well against H.A.C. Tony Pirone, Buddy Britton and Tom Reynolds all pickked up two or more hits for the losers.

Faster gas service for you

In years gone by, repairing the gas service which runs from the street to your basement meant digging up your street, sidewalk and lawn and interfering with traffic. Now, a service pipe requiring repair is used in its present position as a sleeve to protect a copper tubing which is inserted within it to carry the gas. In this manner, only one small opening in the street is necessary. Repairs are completed faster and with little annoyance. Public Service has instituted these faster, easier repair methods so you can enjoy all the advantages of a modern fuel — gas, with maximum convenience and dependability.

and scored five times, and Cliff Manuel had four for five, including a home run and a double. Frank Boccanfuso contributed a two-base hit and a triple to a losing cause.

Cenerino's Edgar Riddick had three hits, and Fred Wilson, George Tucker and Jeff Jefferson had two, in the win over the Post Office. The Shopping Center – Nini Plymouth game was protested by Nini, when it was discovered that a Shopping Center player had been using a hardball bat during the game. The protest was upheld by league commissioner, Jim Hogarty, and the game was scheduled to be replayed this week.

The post - season playoffs between the top four teams will include a two-out-of-three series between Rocky Hill and the fourth place team, and between Conover and Cenerino's with the two winners meeting in a best of five series to determine the champion. Harrison A.C., Post Office, and the winner of the Nini-Shopping Center game, were scheduled to meet in a play-off this week for fourth place.

TIGERS ON TOP

In League Competition. In the 11 different leagues in which the eight Ivy colleges participate each year, Princeton compiled a winning percentage of .699 to top its seven rivals by a wide margin.

Formal competition staged from September through June in football, soccer, basketball, paddle, hockey, squash, swimming, wrestling, baseball, lacrosse and tennis. The Tigers won 97 such events, lost 28 and tied one to lead runner-up Harvard by almost 100 percentage points.

The two Big Three colleges thus reversed their 1963-64 order of finish, when Harvard was on top. Princeton won league championships outright in football and basketball, tied with Dartmouth in lacrosse and with Harvard and Penn in tennis.

The complete won-lost records:

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.

MATCH SHOW TO BE HELD

By Dachshund Club. An American Kennel Club sanctioned B-OB match show will be held Sunday at Miss Fine's School by the Dachshund Club of New Jersey. Muriel Ronay of River Edge is chairman of the event.

Howard Attlee of New York City will judge the breed, divided into puppy, three to six months, six to nine months and nine to 12 months, novice, open and bred-by-exhibitor. Mrs. Francis M. Austin Jr., North Road, will make the obedience awards in sub-novice, novice, graduate novice, open and utility classes.

Entries will be taken at noon, with judging scheduled to begin at 1:30, except for Junior Showmanship which will start at 1. Champions dogs with major points may not be entered. Refreshments will be served.

BOWERS TOPS OIL CO.

Wins Junior Baseball Crown. Bowers Construction scored a run on two walks and a scratch hit, and edged Nassau Oil, 1 to 0, to win the YMCA Junior Baseball title. Both pitchers, winner Tom Butterfoss and loser Carmelo Mauro, hurled well, each chalking up eight strikeouts.

Earlier in the week, Bowers knocked off last place Matthews, 10 to 3 with winning pitcher Jim Pirone allowing only one hit and losing pitcher Billy Brooks giving up only two.

In other games, Nassau Oil blanked the Water Co., 3 to 0, and the Water Co. defeated Matthews. The all-stars, players from the second, third, and fourth place teams, were scheduled to play the champion Bowers team on Tuesday.

The final standings:

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.
Bowers	9	2	1	50
Nassau Oil	7	4	1	42
Water Co.	5	7	0	32
Matthews	1	11	0	18

RCA AND ETS TIED

In Girls Softball. With only two games remaining, in the Princeton Research Girls Softball League, there is a distinct possibility of the regular season ending in a three-way tie for first place.

RCA and ETS, which have already played all their games, are currently sharing first place, and if Opinion Research, one game behind, can win its last contest, a playoff between the three teams will be needed to determine the first place finisher. Post-season playoffs among the top four teams are also scheduled.

RCA, an almost certain bet to finish first at the start of last week's action, was shut out by both American Cyanamid and ETS. Cyanamid won its game, 4-0, and ETS squeaked by, 1 to 0, in a game shortened to five innings by the rain. In other action, Cyanamid walloped last-place McGraw-Hill, 16 to 3, and a contest between the Cordialettes and Cyanamid was ruled no contest and scheduled to be replayed.

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pct.
RCA	7	3	.700
ETS	7	3	.700
ORC	6	3	.667
Cyanamid	4	5	.444
Cordialettes	3	6	.333

Obituaries

Gustave Eisenmann, 62, of Hillside Avenue died August 9 at Princeton Hospital after suffering a heart attack in the Princeton Post Office. He was the widower of Mary K. Eisenmann.

Mr. Eisenmann was a member of the Township Police Department from 1920 until 1954, when he retired as chief. At the time of his death, he was head custodian of the Speer Library of Princeton Seminary.

A resident of Princeton for about 50 years, Mr. Eisenmann served as an instructor for police reserves during World War II. He was a former deacon and member of the Session of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, and taught in its Sunday school. He was a former member of the Township Board of Education, and a cubmaster of Cub Scout Pack 77 of Princeton.

Surviving are three sons, Mayor Robert L. Eisenmann, of Rocky Hill, Gustave W. of New York, and James C. Eisenmann of Skillman; eight grandchildren; two brothers, Luther Eisenmann of Princeton and Ulrich Eisenmann of Robertsville, one sister, Mrs. Charles Petrillo of Kingston, and nieces and nephews.

The service will be held at 11 a.m. this Thursday at the Kimble Funeral Home, 1 Hamilton Avenue. The Rev. Dr. William L. Tucker, pastor emeritus of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Princeton Cemetery.

Dr. Richard K. Kuehnemund, 79, 19 University Place, died of a heart attack Sunday at his home.

Assistant Professor of Germanic Languages, Emeritus, at Princeton, he came to the University in 1946 as a Professor, and in 1963 he retired to emeritus status.

Born in Goettingen, Germany, Dr. Kuehnemund was valedictorian of his class at the Goslar Gymnasium and studied at the University of Munich and at Goettingen, where he received his doctorate, magna cum laude, in 1922.

He came to the United States in 1924, joining the faculty of St. John's College, Annapolis and remaining there for 10 years. During this period, he also taught at the United States Naval Academy. Before coming to Princeton, he taught at Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Columbia and Rutgers.

His field was German literature and thought in the 18th century. He also taught courses in advanced languages and style, and was a contributor to scholarly journals. In World War II, he served with U. S naval intelligence.

Dr. Kuehnemund is survived by his wife, Julia K. Klatte; a son, Richard, and two sisters, both of Goettingen. His ashes will be interred in his wife's family's burial plot in Frostburg, Md. A memorial service will be held in the Princeton University Chapel at a date to be announced.

Mrs. Veronica A. Dey, 43, of 4 Park Place, died August 7 at the Albert Einstein Medical Center, Philadelphia, after a brief illness. She was the wife of Marvin L. Dey.

A Cranbury resident during most of her life, Mrs. Dey was a member of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, Hightstown, and the ladies auxiliary of the Cranbury Fire Company. She was formerly employed at Pharmacraft Laboratory and was a school crossing guard for three years.

A native of Hopewell, Mrs. Allison lived in Princeton for the past 45 years. She was a member of the Pastor's Aid Society of Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church, the board of deacons and the church women's organization.

Also surviving are two sons; Leon O. and Marvin J., both of Yardley, Pa.; five daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Ward, Miss Frances Allison and Miss Harriet Allison, all of Princeton; Mrs. Ethelyn Lawson of Newark and Mrs. Marguerite Taylor of Baltimore, Md.; a brother., Paige A. Hoagland of Hopewell; six grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The service was held at the Witherspoon Church, the Rev. Harold Thomas officiating. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery under direction of the Hughes Funeral Home.

John Venner, 75, died August 6 at his home, 72 Titus Avenue, Lawrenceville.

A native of Lawrenceville, Mr. Venner was an employee of the Lawrenceville School for 33 years, retiring two years ago. He was a member of the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church and the Lawrenceville Fire Company.

Surviving are two brothers, Charles Venner of Lawrenceville and William Venner of Washington, N. J., and several nieces and nephews.

The service was held in Pennington, the Rev. Dana H. Fearon of Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment was in Lawrenceville Cemetery.

Ingvald J. Apeland, 62, of Bunker Hill Road, Griggstown, died August 5 in Princeton Hospital. He was the husband of Mrs. Jenny E. Apeland.

A native of Norway, Mr. Apeland was retired after 23 years as a tug boat captain. He was a member of the Merchant Marine Local 333 of New York and Bunker Hill Lutheran Church.

Also surviving are a brother, Arnt E. Apeland of Brooklyn and a sister in Norway.

The service was held in the Bunker Hill Lutheran Church, the Rev. Sanford Soma officiating. Interment was in Griggstown Cemetery under direction of the Mather Funeral Home.

Porter L. Gaddis, 80, of 103 Raymere Avenue, Wanamassa, N. J., formerly of Princeton, died August 5 in a Long Branch nursing home after a lengthy illness. He was the husband of Mrs. Belle Pol-hemus Gaddis.

An agronomist, Dr. Gaddis held degrees from Greenville (Ill.) College, University of Nebraska and American University. He was professor of agronomy at the University of Nebraska from 1917 until 1921, chief appraiser for the Joint Stock Land Banks of Nebraska until 1930, and assistant chief, reviewer and appraiser for the U. S. Treasury Department during the early 1930's. He was deputy land bank commissioner of the Farm Credit Administration from 1933 until 1944, when he retired from government service. He was active in the Methodist Church for 40 years.

Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Joy J. Dueser of Lincoln, Neb., and Miss Mildred M. Gaddis of Newark, Del., a granddaughter, two great grandsons; a brother, Dr. Bairney H. Gaddis of Spring Arbor, Mich., and a sister, Mrs. Leonard Wilson of Carmel, Ind.

The service was held in First Methodist Church, Asbury Park.

News Of The CHURCHES

CLERGY LISTED

For Summer Services. There will be a number of changes in Princeton pulpits this Sunday:

The Rev. Dr. Leon Gibson of Princeton Methodist Church will preach in Mt. Pisgah A.M.E. Church at the 11 a.m. union service. His topic is "Christian Freedom." The combined choirs will sing Nursery care is provided.

Mrs. E. C. Tanner scheduled to conduct 10 a.m. worship in Rosedale Chapel, Carter Road. She has chosen the topic "The Puritan contribution to American Religious and Social Progress."

Ralph Quere, pastoral assistant preacher, will conduct morning worship and Holy Communion at 10 in the Lutheran Church of the Messiah.

A former missionary to China, the Rev. R. Arthur Matthews, is scheduled to preach at Westerly Road at 11. Confined by the Chinese communists for many months, the Rev. Mr. Matthews was the last missionary, in his board, to come out of China. He is now candidate secretary of the Overseas Missionary Fellowship.

Norval Bacon Jr. of Lawrenceville School returns this Sunday to conduct morning prayer at 11 in Trinity Episcopal Church, Rocky Hill.

In Princeton University Chapel, Dr. Ernest F. Johnson, professor of chemistry and associate dean of the faculty, will lead the 10 a.m. service, held in the chancel.

Ralph C. Chendler, the new assistant minister at First Presbyterian Church, will preach at the 8:30 and 10 a.m. service of the three Princeton Presbyterian churches. to be held this Sunday in Witherspoon Church.

REV. MICHAEL BEGINS

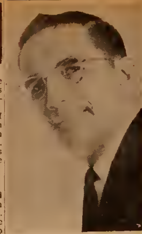
At Pennington Church. A native of India, the Rev. Rollo A. Michael, has begun his charge as minister of Pennington Methodist Church. He was pastor of the Erma Methodist Church near Cape May for the past 13 years.

A United States citizen since 1958, the Rev. Mr. Michael was born and raised in India. His father worked with the British government and his grandparents were Scottish, American and Indian.

He was educated in Scottish Presbyterian schools, a secondary school in Cambridge, England, Wilson College, Bombay; Asbury College Wilmore, Ky., and Temple School of Theology.

An active member of the Student Christian Movement in India, the Rev. Mr. Michael was a delegate to national conferences and a participant in the camp movement. During his ministry at Erma Methodist Church, it became one of the most active churches in the New Jersey Conference, conducting evening and mid-week services, as well as a "released time" (from public school) program for young people.

The Rev. Mr. Michael is a member of the board of the Methodist camp at Malaga, a member of the Conference Committee on Town and Country and former officer of the Bridgeton District Ministers Association and similar organizations. He is married to the former Miss Margaret Calcote and has three sons and an infant daughter born in July.



PENNINGTON PASTOR: The Rev. Rollo A. Michael succeeds the Rev. James W. Marshall as minister of Pennington Methodist Church.

LITTLEBROOK SCHOOL

Five bedrooms, fireplaced recreation room, and large (16 by 20) screened porch overlooking a sunny yard—these are just a few features of our new exclusive listing. For the large family, there is room and to spare. At least 3 bedrooms are extra large, the other 2 are comfortably generous in size. The kitchen, with its own large breakfast area, together with the paneled "2nd living room" lend themselves to informal family living; the vinyl floored entry hall, gracious living and dining rooms to more formal entertaining. Off the dining room, the spacious porch lends itself equally well to family dinners or informal summer get-togethers.

Built just over 5 years ago by a well known Princeton builder, the house is old enough to have a pleasant, lived-in homey look — with extras such as storms and screens, established planting (including pines bordering 3 sides of the property). After this, a child-filled neighborhood, a pretty Township street and walking distance to school. Could you ask for more? At a price of only $49,500

To the purchaser of any '65 SAAB, we will give 10,000 miles of free gas and oil.
(This offer guaranteed through our national gas affiliation.)

For the convenience of interested Princetonians, we have a Princeton-based SAAB and salesman awaiting your call. For appointment and a demonstration ride, call Mr. James Timm, 921-2084. (If no answer, call (215) 295-1700.)

Shopping Imports?

Start with the facts, not the advertising claims and pretty pictures. Prices of imported compacts are pretty much the same, but the specifications and performance characteristics aren't. Nor is value.

We have an import car comparison folder with all of the facts and none of the claims. It compares SAAB to the cars listed above. Read it before you buy any car. It's yours free.

Stop in or give us a call. We'll be happy to mail it to you.

FOR GRACIOUS LIVING

Princeton View

PRINCETON VIEW ESTATES, a new community of fine homes, invites you to inspect the houses presently under construction. This is the most desirable site one can imagine — located only a few minutes drive from Princeton, the gently rolling countryside providing a marvelous view, and bordering on one of the loveliest country clubs in central New Jersey

IN ADDITION to the homes presently under construction there are lots available for those wishing to select their own individual designs. We have many beautiful styles and plans for your inspection, or you may submit your own plan to us. The same custom details and fine construction for which Princeton View has become so well known are incorporated in all our homes.

DIRECTIONS: Take Route 206 north from Princeton to the traffic light at the intersection of Route 518. Turn left, go 1¼ miles to Pine Brae Drive and turn left into Princeton View Estates.

Representative on the premises all day Saturday and Sunday, and can be reached daily from 8 AM to 6 PM at 609-448-4300.

Our definition of a custom home in Princeton

It is a home that reflects your taste and requirements completely. It is a home that reflects the finest traditions of Princeton completely. It is a home that enjoys the beauty of the woods, and the convenience of all city utilities. It is a home built by Princeton's most successful custom builders.

In other words, it is one of the 19 homes of Balcort, to be custom built by Sandeau Construction, Inc.

Show us your plans, or tell us your requirements and we will design for you.

STUART HILL . . . Princeton's Western Section has many advantages for the discriminating home - seeker — not the least of which, perhaps, is the fact that, beginning with the Fall term this year, all three of our finest private day schools will be in operation there. Stuart Country Day, and the new Princeton Day Schools — a merger of Miss Fine's School and Princeton Country Day School — offer beautiful campuses and the ultimate in instruction and outdoor and indoor play To enjoy the fullest benefits of these superior schools, your family should live nearby. And your only opportunity to have a new home, in this estate area, is offered by this office — for, in Stuart Hill, across the road from Stuart Country Day School, and only a short bike ride from the new Princeton Day Schools, on beautiful two-acre wooded plots, we have a 5 bedroom 3 bath Colonial home and another with 6 bedrooms, 4 baths.
(Sole Agents) $79,500 & $89,500

OLD COLONIAL . . in the beautiful Harbourton area, and ideal for commuting from Trenton Completely modernized and decorated in excellent taste. 5 bedrooms, 2 baths and powder room. Here is a beautiful home at a very attractive price — all it needs is a post-and-rail fence along the road frontage to complete the illusion of privacy which many deem to be essential in country living. (Sole Agent) $32,000

EXCEPTIONAL . . . when a builder builds a home for his own family, it is invariably of the best. When that builder in Harold Pearson, it is bound to be truly exceptional. And this home is! Spacious foyer, large living and dining rooms, and a paneled library. All-electric kitchen with ample breakfast space. Off the living room, a formal flag-stoned terrace surrounded with a wall, and much larger than any room in the house. Upstairs — master bedroom with dressing room and bath, 3 more bedrooms and 3 baths. Outdoors — beautiful grounds with fine shade trees and landscaping which is worthy of the almost professional green thumb who lives here — and loves it. (Sole Agent) $56,500

NEW HOMES . . . now you may choose from only four of the beautiful new dwellings in one of Princeton's most desirable neighborhoods — the most luxurious property has been sold Each stands on a spacious 2-acre plot, with city water, city sewer and all utilities, of course. All are large homes, three of traditional Colonial design. Prices start at $65,000. And the owner, fortunately, is in a position to offer much more liberal financing than is usually available for homes in this bracket.

POSTAL PATRON

HI,
NEIGHBOR!

The neighborhood pharmacy has always been a focal point in the community.

It's a grand old American institution.

Here, friends meet informally.
They talk about the weather,
how things are going in the sports world,
discuss politics, grumble a bit about taxes.

When we fill a prescription for you,
it is not just a business transaction.
It's an opportunity to be of helpful service to a neighbor and his family.
